

Biographical Note on Nicolas Papachristodoulou

Nicolas Papachristodoulou was born in Kontemenos on January 2nd 1955. He was the fourth child of the large family of Michaelis and Vasiliki Papachristodoulou. He attended the Primary School of his village and next the Agricultural Gymnasium in Morfou. He joined the army and served in the 33rd commando squadron which was headquartered in Pella Pais of Keryneia.

He fought in all the battles of his squadron and fell in Agios Georgios while defending the city of Keryneia near the premises of the Praxandros Gymnastics Association.

Source:

Akaki Community Council